LOCAL MATTERS.

Drain tile at Contant's. Go to Ihrig's for vegetables. A perfect fit in spectacles at Goff's. B. O. Davidson is down from Hutchinson this week. Window glass and putty at Contant's. Brock Reed has got a new gas stove this week, a beauty. Klammann will pay 18 cents for eggs. There is a car load of heating stoves at W. L. Bartels, and they are the best in the land. The M. E. Church looks very neat and pretty in its new dress. Meals at all hours at the Nickel Plate. Cheap winter dress goods at Colborn's. A detachment of the Salvation Army, two strong, preached and sang on our streets Tuesday. Fine candies and cigars at the Nickel Plate. W. S. Pryor has gone to St. Louis to have some tools made to get his drills out of the well at Humboldt. Beck sells Domestic and White sewing machines. Parties knowing themselves indebted to J. F. Campbell are requested to settle on or before December 1. Sam Willoughby guessed that he would carry Elmore township for sheriff by 50 majority. When the votes were counted he had just thirteen in both precincts. Sam is probably the worst guesser on earth.

Bran and shorts by the ton, cheap. H. Klammann. Northrup Bros. lead in low prices; they never follow. Stone chimney, the best substitute for brick, at Contant's. Dry goods, boots and shoes cheaper than ever at Colborn's. Look out for new goods at T. M. Bartels'. If you want watch repairing done first class take your watch to Goff. For liberal farm loans at lowest rates call on James McCann. If you want to see how pretty you are get Moore to take your picture. When you want cutlery, spoons, silverware or jewelry, go to T. M. Bartels'. We are closing some odd sizes in shoes at about one-half value. Northrup Bros. Coal lands, marble lands, raw and improved lands for sale or trade. Bostwick & Smeltzer. Croup, whooping cough and bronchitis immediately relieved by Shiloh's cure. For sale by W. J. Evans. Charlie Moore runs the best photograph gallery in the county. See him and get your picture "took." Shiloh's cough and consumption cure is sold by us on a guarantee. It cures consumption. For sale by W. J. Evans. Mrs. Wm. Henkins has some nice new hats. And she is still prepared to re-shape old styles. Give her a call. Superior axle grease at Contant's; warranted not to gum, get hard in cold, or melt in hot weather; four boxes for 25c. Sleepless nights made miserable by that terrible cough. Shiloh's cure is the remedy for you. For sale by W. J. Evans. Will you suffer with dyspepsia and liver complaint? Shiloh's vitalizer is guaranteed to cure you. For sale by W. J. Evans. Klammann has received two car loads of choice Iowa potatoes. You will save money by buying in your winter supply now. W. J. Ihrig continues to sell his meat, as he always has, at prices as low as the lowest. He will not be undersold by anybody. Now is the time to get your winter fannels and Colborn's is the place. He has just received a new line that he can sell at a very low price. We loan money on ten years at low rates. Annual interest; no commissions. Can pay part or all any year. Bostwick & Smeltzer. Married, at the M. E. church, Colborn, Kansas, October 27, James W. Fife, of Anderson county, and Miss Lora S. Funston, of Allen county, Rev. S. P. Cullison officiating. The returns from Jerry Simpson's District, the Big Seventh, show a clean Republican majority of 4,000. Last fall the District went for Jerry by 7,000. Catarrh cured, health and sweet breath secured by Shiloh's catarrh remedy. Price 50 cents. Nasal Injector free. For sale by W. J. Evans. A man stopped us on the street Monday and asked if there was an election in Allen county last week. We thought he was joking until he remarked incidentally that he only took two papers and one of them was Democratic and the other Alliance. P. J. Ross will sell at auction at his farm 3 miles north and 3 miles east of Iola, on Tuesday, Nov. 17, 1891, one Flying Cloud mare, 4 cows, 1 buggy, and a lot of farming implements. For terms and particulars see bills. Recent changes over which we had no control have compelled the temporary suspension of the serial story "The Vendetta." It will be finished, however, as soon as we get back into our new office. There are two stray calves at D. Klink's, 4 miles south of Iola, which the owner may have by proving property and paying expenses. There were three, but one got two of its legs broke in some way and had to be killed. If any of our patrons are in need of job printing of any kind we hope they will hold the work for us a day or two longer. We hope to have our job presses running by the first of next week, and when things are again in shape we will be better fixed for doing good work than ever before. When you want anything in the line of hardware, stoves or tinware, you needn't go past W. L. Bartels' to get it, for he has got them all. His stock of shelf hardware is complete, his line of stoves is the largest carried in the county, and his tin shop is run by J. J. Casaire, the "old reliable." Remember these things. The third quarterly meeting of the M. E. church will be held next Sunday and Monday. The evening service will be in charge of Rev. W. H. Chaffee, presiding elder. After the sermon the communion service will be held. The presiding elder will preach again on Monday evening after which the quarterly conference will be held.

Men's arcles 50cts, ladies' rubbers 25cts at Northrup's. Miss Ettie Wilkeson, of Cherryvale, is visiting Mrs. Lottie Wilson. If you need a bill of goods it will pay you to see Northrup Bros. Klammann sells package coffee at 20 cents. Did you ever hear of the like. Be sure and take advantage of Northrup Bros. prices before the 30 days run out. That hacking cough can be so quickly cured by Shiloh's cure. We guarantee it. For sale by W. J. Evans. A great quantity and variety of fire damaged hardware for sale at Brigham & Smith's grocery store. Alex. Ewart. A good unlaundried shirt, linen bosom and cuffs, re-inforced back and front for 50c at Northrup's. Everybody knowing himself indebted to me is requested to call and settle immediately. W. J. Ihrig. Miss Mable Willhoit, of Sheldon, Mo., is visiting her aunt, Mrs. W. J. Brown, and will probably make Iola her future home. My school books were all saved, so my stock is as complete as ever. New books exchanged for old. W. J. Evans. Don't buy your lamps until you have seen the mammoth stock at Bartels'. This is good mince pie weather and Ihrig is ready for it with a supply of fresh and fine mince meats. I have some damaged goods that must be sold at whatever price they will bring. W. J. Evans. If there is ever a place in town where you can buy fresh fruit and produce it is at Ihrig's. For game back, side or chest, use Shiloh's porous plasters. Price 25c. For sale by W. J. Evans. Frank Laffer knows all about watertaps. That is the reason he can repair them so promptly and satisfactorily. A large invoice of very fine lamps, ordered before the fire, have just arrived. If you want more light come and see me. W. J. Evans. Northrup Bros. give you some prices in this issue that will pay you to notice. Shiloh's Vitalizer is what you need for constipation, loss of appetite, dizziness and all symptoms of dyspepsia. Price 10 and 25 cents per bottle at Evans'. A. O. Allen's Post Office Book store is headquarters for everything in the book and stationery line from a steel pen to an unabridged dictionary. Remember this when you need to buy anything in that line. Bob Ayers, the Alliance candidate for sheriff in Anderson county, was beaten by just two votes. Bob was Democrat last year, and he flopped to the Peoples party just in time to have the grand stand fall on him. The fire which destroyed all my tools and furniture leaves me in bad shape and I must ask all who are owing me and whose accounts are due, to make immediate settlement. The accounts are at H. L. Henderson's office. J. Culbertson. Mrs. Goshorn has secured space in J. R. Young's store and desires to notify her customers that she is again ready for business. A large order which she had out for goods has arrived since the fire, so her stock will be found very complete in most lines. I have removed my harness shop to the north side of the square, in the Frozier building, and as rents are lower and my expenses less I can now sell goods cheaper than ever. When you want anything in my line it will pay you big to come and see me. J. M. Williamson. I want to say to my friends and patrons that the fire has made me a heavy loser, and in order to meet demands upon me it is necessary that I should collect the accounts due me. All who are indebted to me will do me a very great favor by making immediate settlement. Alex. Ewart. Moran Herald. Capt. T. S. Stover, filled C. F. Scott's appointment here last Monday night, on account of the absence from home of Mr. S. caused by the fire of the Saturday night previous. We were compelled to be in Iola on business and consequently could not be present, but we understand that Mr. S. made a very effective address. Tim did not waste much time in telling stories, but came to solid facts in a way that showed he was thoroughly posted on the situation. The speech was well received and undoubtedly did much good. On Tuesday evening Mrs. Anna Roush, sister of Mrs. E. P. Brigham, while rocking one of the children accidentally upset a lamp which was standing on a table behind her. Fearing this lamp might explode she picked it up and threw it into the yard. The danger was over, but the fright had been so great that Miss Roush fainted and then passed into convulsions from which she suffered severely all the remainder of the night, in spite of the efforts of the physicians to relieve her. At this writing, however, she is much better and her early recovery is hoped for.

Fresh meats of all kinds—mutton, pork, chickens, at Ihrig's. For children's school dresses see the pretty new styles at Ewart's. Pocket cutlery, razors and shears, fully warranted at Contant's. You can get pretty nearly everything you need to eat at Ihrig's. The best way to keep apples is to can them in W. H. Root's tin cans. W. H. Root will do your tin work promptly and guarantee satisfaction. Jimmie Campbell went to Kansas City Wednesday to buy his stock of holiday goods. There will be an eclipse of the moon next Sunday. It will occur just as the moon is high. Poles for sale by the load at my farm, mouth of Deer Creek. Z. E. Bennett. A full report of the District Court proceedings, after being put in type, is crowded out of this issue. It will appear next week. Married: On Wednesday, Nov. 11, 1891, at the residence of Wm. Hankins, the officiating clergyman, R. E. Watkins and Minnie L. Lucas. A typographical error in last week's Register made it appear that Mr. Rowles' frame building, occupied by Culbertson & Evans, was insured for $1,500. It should have said $500. Married: At the home of the bride, on November 11th, by Rev. A. S. Freed, Mr. Benjamin P. Keck of Winfield, Kansas, and Mrs. Marietta Croft of this city. All the losses by our fire who had insurance, have had their losses adjusted. In the main the adjustments were satisfactory, and in no case was the "shaving" considered enough to justify a contest. The REGISTER is still indebted to the hospitality of the Union for its appearance this week. The only way we can ever requite Mr. McElroy for his kindness will be to help him get out his paper when his office burns down. We sincerely hope, therefore, that we will never have a chance to "play even" with him. But if such misfortune as befell us should come to him, he may be very sure that the REGISTER office and the REGISTER force will be at his disposal as long as he wants to use them. We cannot express as strongly as we feel, our appreciation of his more than brotherly kindness. Commenting the other day on the beauty of the new wall paper that has just been put on the Methodist church and the pity that it should be soiled by the men leaning their heads against it, a woman suggested that cushions should be provided at the end of each seat for people to put between their head and the wall. "What's the matter with stretching a barbed wire along the wall?" asked a man who happened to be standing near. A philosopher who heard the two suggestions thought to himself that they illustrated very aptly the difference between the way a woman looks at some things and the way a man looks at them. The REGISTER has always been glad to believe that it had many and true friends; but it never realized how many friends it had, or how true they were, until disaster came upon it. As soon as the news of the loss was published, telegrams and letters began to come from friends in different parts of the State, many of them extending offers of financial assistance and all expressing regret and encouragement. All the newspapers accompanied their report of the fire with the most cordial words of good will and good cheer. And here at home—best of all—the warm clasp of friendly hands and the earnest words of sorrow and sympathy and faith have been helpful and encouraging beyond expression. A misfortune which brings one's friends about him and shows him how many they are and how true they are, is far indeed from being a calamity. It is not hard to be brave and light-hearted and hopeful when one knows there are friends behind him who will lend him a hand when it is needed and who want him to win and have faith that he will. An unguarded expression in last week's paper seems to have given some of our readers the impression that the REGISTER was likely to be located somewhere else than in Iola. We want to efface that impression right away. The REGISTER is a fixture in Iola. It is "here to stay," with a very decided emphasis on the stay. And so is its editor. Iola is nearly twice as big as it was ten years ago and the REGISTER is doing fully twice as big a business as it did then. If the town does as well in the next ten years, (which we do not doubt), and if the REGISTER keeps pace with it, (which it will be found trying), there will be work enough here and field enough to satisfy any reasonable ambition. As it is now there is not another weekly paper in the State we would take in exchange for the REGISTER, and there are only two dailies. When we get our new office fitted up and arranged as we want it, it will be a home that any newspaper might be proud of. And we intend to give our days and nights, as we have in the past, to making the REGISTER a newspaper that its friends may be proud of. The REGISTER is here to stay.

J. P. Duncan is at home for a few days' visit. Several letters are crowded out this week. Wait till we get home. In the damage suit of Dr. L. Tozer against this city, the Court sustained the city's demurrer. The plaintiff was given 10 days to file an amended petition. T. M. Bartels has been appointed up town agent for Wells, Fargo Express, and business with that company may now be transacted at his store. Mr. Potter asks us to say that the Iola Cider and Vinegar Works will shut down for the season next Saturday Nov. 21. Those wanting work done must report before that time. The editor has been rather busy this week, and the composing room has been eight miles from the editorial room; which may account for and we hope will excuse any omissions that may be observed in the local columns of the REGISTER. "Snow White" was given at the Opera House last Friday and Saturday nights under the direction of Mr. Evislizer, and considering the disadvantages under which it was prepared, was fairly creditable. It is to be regretted that Mr. Evislizer could not have had a larger class here, but those who attended are well satisfied with the instruction they received. On account of the loss of the REGISTER mailing lists it is quite likely that a good many papers have been omitted or misent. If anyone receives a paper who is not a subscriber and does not want to become one, we trust he will promptly notify us. And we would esteem it as a great favor if the postmasters would inform us of any omissions or errors in the list of papers sent to their respective offices. I have concluded to make a special sale of wall paper "for three days only"—Thursday, Friday and Saturday of next week, 19th, 20th and 21st to close out my stock of paper to make room for my holiday stock. Note the prices below: 20 rolls of white blank double roll. 20 rolls of gilt double roll. 20 rolls of gilt 2c double roll. Borders in the same proportion. It will pay all to call early and make selections, as I will not sell only on the day mentioned above at these prices. A. O. Allen, P. O. Book Store, Iola, Kas. One of the grizzled old Modocks up on the Osage send us a handsome check to apply on subscription and says: "Your friends in Osage sympathize with you in your loss. Don't feel discouraged. Don't let your lip hang down. Roll up your sleeves and waltz in. We will stay with you." If anything could warm up the cockles around a man's heart it is talk like that. And that is the kind of talk, in effect if not exactly in the same words, that has been coming into the REGISTER office ever since it happened. As long as the REGISTER's friends "stay with it" as they are doing now, it will take something more than a fire to wipe it out. High School Rhetoricals. The Ciceronian Club of our city high school will render a rhetorical program in the high school building on the evening of Friday Nov. 20. The young ladies composing the club have prepared everything for a pleasant evening and our school patrons cannot afford to miss hearing them. An admission fee of five cents will be charged all who are not members of the high school. The proceeds will be devoted to the school library. The exercises will open at 7 o'clock. All are urged to be present at that hour. Cards of Thanks. We wish to express our hearty thanks to our friends for their sympathy and kindness in our recent bereavement. MRS. MARY HARRIS & FAMILY. We appreciate deeply the kindness of friends and neighbors who assisted us during the recent illness and after the death of our daughter, and we desire to extend to all our heartfelt thanks. MR. AND MRS. W. H. LING. To the citizens of Iola I tender my kind thanks and true regard in helping me to repair my loss by the recent fire, to them I give my best wishes. May the Lord's richest blessing rest upon them. JOHN SHANK. The Library Entertainment. The following is the program of the entertainment to be given by the Library ladies at the opera house next Friday evening, Nov. 13. Song—Male quartette. Recitation. Song—Solo. Recitation. Woodworking contest by the following named ladies: Elizabeth Henderson, Phoebe Phindigree, Tabitha Farnrose, Jennie Higginbotham, Jennie Adkins, Elizabeth Binkins, and others. Presentation of prizes to those who saved the most and best sticks. Refreshments and winter evening stories. A. O. E. W. All members of Iola Lodge No. 28 are urged to attend the next regular meeting of the Lodge on Friday evening, November 13, to consider the advisability of converting the A. O. E. W. Hall into an opera house. Please be present. By order of M. W. V. M. PORT, J. E. HENDERSON, Recorder.
